Rapid Re-Housing Program

For residents of Chisago, Isanti, Pine, Kanabec and Mille Lacs Counties who have a serious mental illness diagnosis (SMI) and are homeless or at risk of being homeless, Rise can help you develop an Individualized Support Plan.

Rise can also help you with case management, budgeting, landlord mediation, tenant education, connecting with resources, and your housing search.

You may also qualify for funds to cover the first month’s rent and security deposit as well as short-term (three months maximum) rental assistance paid directly to the licensed landlord.

Additional funds may be available for application fees, household furnishings, rental restoration, and moving expenses.

YOU HAVE GOALS AND DREAMS.
RISE CAN HELP YOU MAKE THEM A REALITY

At Rise, we believe that everyone deserves a safe and affordable place to live. Rise can assist you in making a smooth transition into living more independently in the community.

We offer individuals, families, and transition-age youth whose lives are affected by mental illness a wide array of support, housing assistance, outreach and referral, and advocacy services.

We also assist people in reaching their personal level of self-sufficiency and mental health recovery.

Rise’s Mental Health and Housing Support Services are offered in Chisago, Isanti, Pine, Kanabec, and Mille Lacs Counties.

WOULD YOU LIKE SUPPORT WITH:
• Locating safe and affordable housing including emergency shelter
• Independent living skills
• Household management skills such as budgeting and housekeeping
• Landlord/tenant rights and responsibilities
• Mental health recovery, and
• Crisis assistance.

RISE CAN ALSO ASSIST YOU WITH:
• Addressing housing and credit barriers
• Negotiating with your landlord
• Identifying community resources, and
• Applying for public assistance and/or rental subsidies.

Rise’s Transitional Housing Program (THP) is time-limited and targeted to households who are homeless and for whom market-rate housing is not available due to poor rental, credit and criminal backgrounds.

RISE CAN ASSIST YOU WITH EMPLOYMENT ISSUES OR FINDING A GOOD JOB

Additional eligibility criteria vary by specific program; please contact the Rise offices listed on the back for more information. Or visit Rise’s website at www.rise.org.

Rise also offers assistance in qualifying for and maintaining employment. Rise employment team members provide planning services and supports so you can find and maintain a job which meets your individual needs and skills, and provide the support you may need to be successful in the career field of your choice.

We can also assist you with benefits planning to help you determine how best to maintain the medical and income assistance benefits you need and are entitled to while earning a paycheck.

Ask your Rise Mental Health and Housing Support Services team member for more information about Rise’s career planning, job placement and employment services.
